

GETTING BOLD

Robbers in Rushville and Vicinity Have a Feast.

Claude Cambern's Residence Looted Sunday Night and Articles of Value Selected at Leisure.

There has been much petty thievery and many small robberies in Rushville, during the last few months, but the one last night, when every room, drawer, closet and department of Attorney Claude Cambern's residence was looted has aroused the people and the authorities.

It is not known just what was taken, because Mr. and Mrs. Cambern are in Kansas, and the relatives do not know whether Mr. Cambern put the valuable silverware, trophies and souvenirs that he collected in foreign lands, in a safe or not. They are gone, however. Inquiry has been made at the bank and other places, where Mr. Cambern might have put these articles, but they have not been located.

Frank Wilson, a brother-in-law, of Mr. Cambern, wired him today, of the theft, and is expecting a reply at any moment. The police have been notified and have some clues, which they are working on.

The fact that the burglary had been committed was first discovered by Aileen Wilson, who passing through the yard found a window open.

She informed her father, who having a key entered the residence and found everything in disorder, drawers, closets, and every nook and corner having been gone into.

The clothing had all been searched. A lamp was burning, and from the amount of oil consumed, it was estimated that the burglary was committed early this morning.

The burglar took a pair of Mr. Cambern's shoes, leaving a pair of his own, which were old and showed that he had done some spading with them. He also took a Stetson hat, tearing the band out, and left an old one of his with the band torn out.

If the articles that cannot be found are stolen, they are very rare and collected from all parts of the world, are valuable and cannot be replaced.

RUSH-FAYETTE

Former Residents of Two Counties Enjoy Reunion at Indianapolis

Brookside Park, the Scene of the Celebration—Attendance Larger Than Ever.

About four hundred former residents of Rush and Fayette counties met in Indianapolis Sunday at Brookside park, to enjoy the annual celebration.

The attendance was larger and more interest was shown than at any previous meeting. It is estimated that from five to six hundred people from these two counties live in Indianapolis.

The Indianapolis Star gives the following account of the meeting:

In the absence of Pres. Smiley, Vice Pres. Garrett P. Hanna presided at the business meeting. After having served two terms Pres. Smiley resigned, and Cary Jackson, of Falmouth, was chosen in his place. The other officers elected were Ira Hinchman, vice president; and Mrs. J. W. McGrew, secretary. No formal program had been prepared. The principal address was given by Charles E. Merrifield, of Indianapolis, and his stories of life down in Rush and Fayette were such as to make the visitors conclude that it must be a goodly land. He concluded his address by reciting an original poem, entitled "An Incident of the Camp." Others who took part in the meeting were

George W. Lancaster, Chester Caldwell and Mrs. J. W. McGrew.

It was decided to hold the next picnic in Brookside park in June, 1905, the date to be fixed later.

During the early part of the afternoon there was considerable rivalry among those present as to which county had the better representation. For a long time it seemed that every arrival was from Fayette county. Some Rush county defender started the report that Fayette county had "packed the picnic" by running an excursion from Connersville. This argument lasted until some enthusiastic Fayette county representative pointed out the fact that the excursion had to pass through Rushville before it could get to Indianapolis. At the close it was almost a stand-off between the two counties.

Among those present were Ira Hinchman, L. A. Hittle, J. T. Hinchman, Mrs. Edwin E. Johnston, Mrs. Clara A. Johnston, Mrs. Margaret Johnston, Mrs. Kate Johnston Pratt, Anna Miller, J. R. Vancleave, Julia Vancleave, Leah Vancleave, G. O. Smith, Anna Smith, Drusilla Diller, Anna Carmony, Joseph M. Taylor, Mrs. F. S. Thompson, Mrs. Thomas K. Trusler, Mrs. Belle Van Wie, Zeph Jameson, L. A SUNDAY LYMCING

Negro was Given to the Mob by Faint-Hearted Officers and Daylight Hanging Follows.

Europa, Miss., June 27.—Starling Dunham, a negro wanted on the charge of criminally assaulting the fourteen-year-old daughter of John Wilson, a white man, near Bellefontaine, two weeks ago, and attempting to criminally assault three young ladies named Dunn near this city, all during the course of the same day, was hanged in the public square here Sunday by a mob. The noose was placed about the negro's neck by the little Wilson girl, who positively identified him as her assailant. The negro was then placed upon the back of a black horse and at a signal from the leader of the mob the little Wilson girl led the horse from under him.

Over 3,000 persons, white and black, witnessed the hanging. The lynching was as orderly as a legal execution. After being assured that the negro was dead the mob cut down the body and turned it over to relatives for burial.

Dunham was captured Friday near Vienna, Ala., after a running chase during which he was twice wounded. He was brought here Saturday night by the sheriff of this (Wilson) county. A large mob met the train at the railroad station and an effort was made to get the negro, but the officers spirited him away and carried him to jail at Walthall, six miles from here, where the party was again met by a mob of determined men, who said their intention was to burn Dunham. The officers in charge of the negro succeeded in prevailing upon the mob to give this intention up, but only after promising to deliver the negro to the mob Sunday morning for execution.

There was a strong sentiment for burning, but this was overcome and the lynching took the form of a hanging. Dunham stoutly maintained his innocence to the last and denied that he had ever seen the Wilson girl. He admitted having visited Dunn's place, but denied any bad motive. His last remarks were made to 200 negroes who were assembled about the place of execution. Dunham telling them never to go about a white man's house when women were at home alone.

The three Dunn sisters, the eldest of whom is less than eighteen, witnessed the lynching from a distance.

Why American Ships Cost Most

By EDWIN S. CRAMP, Philadelphia Shipbuilder

PRECEDING the Spanish-American war prices of materials entering into ship construction were at the lowest point ever known, and LOWER IN THIS COUNTRY THAN IN EUROPE, so much so that the price ruling then was a cent a pound for all plates and shapes at Pittsburg. At the same time the prices ruling in England were from $25 to $27 a ton.

Today the prices which have been maintained by manufacturers are: Steel plates, 1.75 cents a pound; shapes, angles and channels, 1.75 cents, and bulb angles, 1.75 cents. On the other hand, the prices ruling in England are: Steel plates and shapes, DELIVERED CLEAR OF INSURANCE AND FREIGHT at Philadelphia, but no duty paid, 1.40 cents a pound.

The same labor saving devices that we have introduced and applied in America are being introduced and applied in every shipyard in Great Britain. At the same time WE ARE PAYING DOUBLE THE WAGES, from 50 to 100 per cent more, than is being paid in England for the same classes of labor.

If we apply the figures as to the cost of materials in the construction of a 12,000 ton ship, intended for crossing the Atlantic ocean, the steel and iron which enter into both hull and outfits and engines and boilers—that material alone being 60 per cent higher here—will amount to A HANDICAP AGAINST THE AMERICAN BUILDER ON ONE SINGLE SHIP OF $150,000.

A GREAT GAME

Rushville Team Defeats Dayton Reserves in Best Game of Season

Game was a Pitchers Battle From Start to Finish and was Full of Exciting Plays.

A crowd of fourteen hundred people witnessed the best game of the season on the local grounds yesterday afternoon. The Dayton Reserves were pitted against the locals and they proved to be a big surprise.

For five and one half innings the old goose continued to lay and it was nip and tuck between the two teams. Neither team made an error of any consequence and neither team could hit the opposing pitcher to any advantage. This part of the game was full of exciting plays and close decisions and was played in remarkably fast time.

In the third and fourth innings Bourquin, Dayton's centerfielder, won the admiration of the crowd by two sensational catches of long flies driven to his territory. In the third, he caught with one hand what appeared to be a home run from Arnold's bat, after making a long run back toward the fence and when there were two outs and two men on bases.

When the fatal sixth—always Rushville's inning—came round "Windy" singled to right and went to second on a wild pitch by Schommer. He was sacrificed to third by Short Bull and scored on a sacrifice by Kiser. During this inning a peculiar thing happened. Owing to the sacrifice hits only two Rushville men were at bat. "Windy's" hit, Schommer's wild pitch and the two sacrifices made the score.

In the ninth, all was excitement. Seitz of the Dayton's stepped up to the plate, hit a fly to Morgan in center which the later caught. Strasburg struck out and Farris came to bat. The crowd thought all was over and commenced to leave the grounds. Farris swatted the ball to right field and got to first. Krochner came to bat and two strikes were called upon him. By this time the majority of the crowd were out of the grandstand and had started out the gates. When the next ball came over the plate Krochner sent a double sailing over Yazel's head and sending Farris around the bases and across home plate.

Then those who had remained in the stand, settled back into their seats and many of those who had left returned to see the game finished. Platt was then put out easily and the side was retired. Wagner stepped up to the plate and sent a hot grounder to Loose, who muffed it letting Wagner safely to first. Arnold came to bat and basted a triple to left upon which Wagner scored and ended the game in Rushville's favor by a score of 2 to 1.

All the plays were fast and exciting, one of the main features of the game being a trick play in the third by Mitchell, who threw the ball to Pruitt in such a manner that it appeared to be going to Wagner at Third. Schommer was on third and was watching the catcher. Pruitt quickly threw the ball to Wagner, who touched Schommer before he could get back to the bag. The pitching of Pruitt and Schommer and the catching of Short Bull (Mitchell) were also features.

EVANSVILLE AROUSED

Shocking Crime Creates Fears of Another Race Riot.

Evansville, Ind., June 27.—While returning from a park last night Harry Smith and Miss Clara Weinbach were confronted on a dark corner by a negro, who, at the point of a revolver, ordered Smith to flee. Smith did so, leaving the girl at the mercy of the negro, who dragged her inside a nearby school-yard, where she was assaulted and left unconscious. Smith ran to police headquarters and, securing aid, returned to the scene of the assault, where Miss Weinbach was found unconscious and in a critical condition. The city is being scoured for the girl's assailant, and a repetition of last summer's race riot is feared.

Drowned in the Harbor.

New York, June 27.—Five persons were drowned on the bar off Forty-seventh street, Brooklyn, by the overturning of the 38-foot yacht Elsie and Katie, in a heavy storm that swept over New York Sunday afternoon. Those drowned were Mrs. Kate Clarke of Brooklyn, wife of Peter Clark, the owner of the yacht; her two daughters, Lizzie, aged ten, and Louise, aged four; her two-year-old niece, Mamie Clark, and Lizzie Iason, sixteen years old.

IS CONFIRMED

Sinking of a Russian Battleship at Port Arthur Adds to Togo's Laurels.

Tokio, June 27.—A detailed account of the naval battle at Port Arthur last Thursday night has just been published here. During the night eight separate attacks were delivered lasting until dawn of Friday. In one of these assaults the Chirataka twice torpedoed a battleship of the Peresviet type and sank her. A battleship of the Sevastopol type and a cruiser of the Diana type were disabled and towed away.

Liao Yang, June 27.—The second Japanese army under General Oku is withdrawing all along the line, having apparently abandoned the intention of effecting a juncture with General Kuroki's army.

St. Petersburg, June 27.—The Japanese report of the loss of three Russian ships at Port Arthur has not been published here, though the authorities have allowed to be printed a statement that the squadron has made a sortie, and also the news of the loss of Japanese torpedo boat destroyers. Some of the papers have even commented with satisfaction on the prospect of the fight in the open sea where the merits of the two fleets would be fairly tested.

An official explanation of the suppression of the Japanese report is that the admiralty is unwilling to unnecessarily alarm the public by the circulation of such statements entirely on the authority of the enemy and in the absence of definite advices from the commander at Port Arthur. It is also suggested as possible that there has been a fight and that the Japanese have minimized their own losses and magnified those of the Russians which it is understood Japan is negotiating.

On the other hand, according to a foreign naval attaché, the admiralty admitted that Rear Admiral Withoft (the naval commander at Port Arthur) lost one battleship and two cruisers, but in the absence of details there was an inclination to believe that the ships struck mines, the admiralty not believing, in the face of the lessons taught by the injuries to the Retvizan and Czarevitch, that Admiral Withoft would have remained in the outer roadstead at night, thus inviting a dash by the destroyers.

In high court and army and naval circles, where the report of the Port Arthur affair has been freely circulated, the Japanese version is received with considerable reserve.

The officials do not attempt to disguise the seriousness of and the far-reaching consequences which might result from the loss of three of the Port Arthur warships, but they profess to be more inclined to believe that the vessels were lost in open fight rather than as the result of a torpedo attack. Should this be the case, they say, the Japanese could not have escaped without material loss or the crippling of one or two of their battleships, enough to assure the command of the sea to the Baltic squadron.

Bold Cossacks Charge.

Mukden, June 27.—Major General Mitschchenko and several companies of Cossacks, on the night of June 25, while reconnoitering west of the Yalu river, were pursued by a considerable force of Japanese. The Cossacks turned and charged, breaking the lines of the Japanese, whom they pursued for twelve hours, inflicting heavy losses.

Japs Moving Forward.

Liao Yang, June 27.—Reports of fighting between the advance guard regiments are continually coming in. The battles are indecisive and they show that the Japanese are moving forward regularly on each front. This is corroborated by official dispatches.

Russian Barbarities Reported.

Seoul, June 27.—A telegram received here from Gensan, Korea, reports that Russian troops have burned numerous dwelling houses in the towns of Kilju and Ham Hwang, and that at the latter place women were subjected to ill-treatment.

Russian Troops Entrenching.

Tien Tsin, June 27.—It is reported here that 40,000 Russian troops are at Ta Tohe Kiao, fifteen miles north of Kaiping, where entrenchments are being erected, and where it is expected a stand will be made against the Japanese.

Another "orderly" lynching was held in Mississippi yesterday.

It is just one week until the Fourth of July and already the metropolitan papers report that several boys have been stricken with lockjaw as the result of fire crackers and explosives.

Force of habit plays an important part in the average American's career.
 We are apt to fall into the habit of doing things each day until at last we are not prompted by the necessity, but a mere bit. The most discouraging habit just at present is the street sprinkling habit. On Sunday morning although the streets were disagree-ably muddy from the heavy rains of the night before, there were a number of persons sprinkling their lawns and streets in this city.

The American people are truly a strenuous people, and now that about one-fifth of the inhabitants have been injured by falling out of cherry trees the remainder of them are making preparation to get hurt next week by the use of fire crackers or other explosives. While perhaps somewhat exaggerated, if kept up at the present rate for a few years, the expression you often hear that "there have been more men killed celebrating our American independence than there were in securing it," will no doubt prove true.

With the disappearance of the Indianapolis Journal, the State and National Committees at once began to make preparations to reach the people through their local party paper and it is important that the relations between the Republicans of Rush county and this paper be strengthened and that it reaches every household. The Republicans of this county should make special effort to see that the daily Republican is placed in every home recently supplied with the Journal, also many others that ought to have taken it.

Egypt's royal family are here as private tourists two princes, a princess, and several gorgeous beings of minor rank. They have assigned 72 days to the country. They have been interviewed, of course, and are delighted, O, delighted!

MADE FINE IMPRESSION

National Chairman Cortelyou Gains Firm Friends in Indiana.

Indianapolis, June 27.—George B.
 Cortelyou, the new chairman of the Republican national committee, who stopped over here to attend the reception in honor of Senator Fairbanks, made an excellent impression with the party leaders he met. They were inclined to hold critical opinion regarding him, owing to the strenuous objection made by a number of prominent party men to him, but most of the leaders here are about ready to predict that President Roosevelt was wise in naming him. Cortelyou made careful inquiries regarding the political situation in Indiana, and seemed very well pleased with the outlook.
 He was especially well pleased with the prospect of the Republicans here being able to put up a stiff campaign without much outside assistance. He met J. Frank Hanly, the nominee for governor at Lafayette, and privately expressed the opinion that Hanly will make a very strong candidate. He has a high opinion of Senator Bever-ledge and between Beveridge and Hanly he thinks there will be a stirring campaign from the stump. He also expressed the belief that Senator Fairbanks will make a very strong candidate for the vice presidency.

Many of the Republicans from this state who attended the national convention at Chicago last week were dealing in futures, so to speak. For instance John Dwyer of Hammond announced that he will be a candidate for the nomination for state treasurer two years hence. He made the race two years ago and was a strong factor. He hopes to prove a winner next time. It was rumored during the convention that Frank Martin will make another race for the nomination for auditor of state. He seems to be growing more popular and will probably be a very formidable candidate.
 J. R. Henry, who was also an interested spectator during the convention, will be a candidate for the nomination for auditor. Two other gentlemen who attended the convention intimated that they will be candidates for auditor, but they will not permit the use of their names at this time. It is safe to predict, however, that the campaign of 1906 will be opening up long before the present campaign closes.

There were a number of straggling arrivals today for the prohibitionists' national convention which begins here Wednesday. It promises to almost equal the Republican convention at Chicago in point of numbers. There will be more delegates here than there were at Chicago. A special train will arrive here tomorrow with the New York delegation. Pennsylvania and two or three other Eastern states will come Wednesday in special trains.
 The bulk of the crowd, however, will be furnished by Indiana and Illinois because of their location and their large prohibition vote. Elaborate arrangements have been made to take care of the crowd and there will be several meetings going on at the same time. There is a lot of talk about General Nelson Miles for the nomination for president, and it would not be surprising if he should be named. The prohibition leaders will get together here and make arrangements for their plan of campaign, which promises to be more thorough than ever.

MGR. GUIDI DEAD

Papal Representative in the Philip-

 Manila, June 27.—Monsignor Guidi, apostolic delegate to the Philippines, died Sunday of heart failure. The funeral will take place here next Friday and the remains will be interred two months later at Rome.

Mgr. Guidi was sent to the Philippines nearly two years ago as the representative of the vatican in the negotiations with the Philippines commissioners for the sale of the friar lands to the American government. An agreement was reached early in December last by Governor Taft and the friars. The settlement provided for the purchase of 403,000 acres comprising all of the friar lands in the islands.
 The price paid for the lands was $7, 250,000.

Lima, Peru, June 27.—Amid perfect order 20,000 persons of all classes in Lima and the suburbs paraded through the center of the city Sunday proclaiming General Nicolas De Pierola as a candidate for the presidency. The scene was one without precedent in Peru.

Mexico City, June 27.—Five train-men lost their lives in a wreck which occurred on the Mexican Central railroad near Tampico.

THE PARTY PAPER— WHAT IT DESERVES

The recent sale of the Indianapolis Journal, so many years the leading exponent of the principles of Republicanism in this state, and its elimination from the newspaper field, has been made the occasion of many suggestions to the effect that the day of the party paper is over.

If this were true it would be necessary to add as an inevitable sequence that the day of political parties is almost at an end. Political parties are based upon certain principles; their existence depends upon co-operative effort for the advancement of these principles, and in a day when the writer has in a large degree supplanted the speaker in the education of public opinion, the elimination of the party press would mean the destruction of the chief centrifugal force contributing to co-operate action in the advancement of definite national policies.

No intelligent student of American affairs would look upon the destruction of the party system as a desirable consummation, despite the contempt for partisanship which has been affected by some persons professing to move on a higher plane of thought than most people on the ground know anything about. The party system affords in this country the only available method of responsible government.
 The only substitute for it would of necessity be a factionalism centering about individuals, which is the certain destruction of republics.

If the party paper is dying out as a metropolitan institution, it is because the city newspaper, to a degree unknown a quarter of a century ago, has become simply and solely a commercial enterprise, the value of which is judged, not by the extent of its influence or the quality of its leadership, but by the success it attains in attracting patronage. It has been discovered that it is popular for a newspaper either to have no definite opinions on any issue dividing public opinion, or to so distribute its views that there may be a thorough "working" of both sides of the political street.

Outside of the cities the stronger papers are still party journals—not in the narrow sense that every act of the particular party espoused is characterized as good, and every act of the opposition denounced as bad, but in the same sense that there is partisanship in every man with red blood in his veins, and with the instinct to be loyal to something which is a characteristic of every forceful personality.

It has been demonstrated in the passing of many of the strong party papers of the country that the paper which advocates the principles of a political party instead of making commercial opportunism the keynote of its editorial policy, necessarily circumscribes its own financial possibilities. A paper which consistently and persistently advocates the principles of that political party it believes to be most nearly right upon the issues of the day, surrenders in large part the support of members of the opposing political party. For that very reason, if for no other, it deserves the support of those who desire the advancement of the principles contended for by the press of their own party. The party paper has a right to expect that those who are interested in the success of these principles shall rally about it, rather than about some newspaper coining profit out of its failure to use its influence in the cause for which they contend, or about some other paper seeking to promote the success of an opposing political party.

Only in such manner may the party press—more the party itself—be maintained for the fulfillment of its mission. The Republican who fails to yield to his local paper the earnest and ungrudging support it deserves, is preparing the way for the ultimate elimination of the most powerful existing agent for the dissemination of the principles of the party to which he belongs. In the degree to which he is interested in the welfare of his party, he must be interested in the success of his party paper, and will yield not only passive support but active effort to its upbuilding.

There is no compulsory attendance at the schools in Japan for the reason that none is needed, both parents and children being eager for all the educational advantages they can get.

A WONDERFUL INVENTION.

It is interesting to note that fortunes are frequently made by the invention of articles of minor importance. Many of the most popular devices are those designed to benefit the people and meet popular conditions, and one of the most interesting of these that has ever been invented is the Dr. White Electric Comb, patented Jan. 1, '99. These wonderful Combs positively cure dandruff, hair falling out, sick and nervous headaches, and when used with Dr.
 White's Electric Hair Brush are positively guaranteed to make straight hair curly in 25 days' time. Thousands of these electric combs have been sold in various cities of the Union, and the demand is constantly increasing. Our agents are rapidly becoming rich selling these combs. They positively sell on sight. Send for sample. Men's size 35c; ladies 50c—(half while we are introducing them) The Dr. White Electric Comb Co., Decatur, Ill.

 eases than it's recommended for. I could not get along without it."—Mrs. E.
 A. Hamilton, Sarahville, Ohio.

 rheumatism."—Frank B. Carman, Brooklyn, N. Y.
 "I feel satisfied that if anything will prolong life it is Seven Barks and Globe Pills."—Wm. J. Hancock, Ogden City, Utah.

We could use several pages of this size in reproducing short extracts from original letters in our possession, received from enthusiastic friends of "Seven Barks." There is no evidence of merit deserved, we cannot produce, but the quickest way to settle all doubt, if in the reader's mind, is to buy a 5-cent bottle from your home druggist, and if you do not find it all we claim, get your money back. It will be cheerfully refunded by the druggist you bought of.

COUNTY NEWS

Glenwood.

Quite a sprinkling of our citizens witnessed the Indians play ball. Corn is growing nicely. Wheat has come out more in the past six weeks than ever before in the experience of some of our oldest citizens. We trust the complaint will not be too much of a yield and not a sufficient price.

Rolla Hobbs came home from Fairmount, where he had been in the employ of Perry Meek, who was engaged in the meat business. There's no place like home.

Some people get lost when they go fishing and are kept to a late hour in the night.

Some of our good ladies went to Connersville to do some shopping.

A. L. Chew will furnish ice cream to the people and vicinity.

Mr. Hutchinson, a former pastor of the U. P. church, preached in Mr. Cooke's stead last Sunday. Mr. Cooke will not be at home until the 15th of next month.

I. N. Baker is a crack base ball pitcher. Hurrah for Isaac.

The Ladies Aid Society will give a festival at the school house yard. Prayer meeting will be withdrawn for the festival.

Mr. W. E. Ochiltree, of Connersville and Robert, Ochiltree, of Cincinnati, attended church and heard their pastor that preached to them when they were boys.

The Glenwood band went to Liberty last Sunday to play for the dedication.

Seventy-five of Mr. Jack Smith's friends and relatives made a complete surprise on him last Friday evening. Everyone enjoyed themselves.

Mrs. Gertie Rees gave a party for her little niece, who is visiting her at the present time.

The rite of baptism by immersion will be performed upon five candidates the 3d of July at Gray's Falls. Rev. T. Anthony will not preach at the usual hour, but will perform the rite of baptism at Gray's Falls. He will preach at night and after preaching he will take the probationers into the church in full connection.

Several of our citizens attended the baptizing at New Salem on last Sabbath afternoon.

A game of ball took place between the boys here and the Manzy boys.

It resulted in favor of the Manzy boys.

We hope there will be no rag chewing. This thing of chewing the rag is the thing that makes base ball disgraceful.

Carthage.

Rev. Alpheus Trueblood, of Marion, preached to a large congregation at the Friends' church Sabbath morning.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Henley, of Cincinnati, are the guests of their brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Henley.

Mrs. Ada Porch attended commencement exercises at Spiceland Academy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Henley, of Indianapolis, were here Friday and Saturday, visiting relatives.

Prof. W. V. Mangrum, of Terre Haute, superintendent-elect of the Carthage schools, was here Friday.

Miss Lizzie Kirkwood has been visiting her brother, D. W. Kirkwood and wife.

John Lung, of Greenfield, has opened a laundry in the rooms vacated by the Record.

Messrs. David Smith and Elmer Stout, of Indianapolis, were guests of the Misses Florence and Lillian Henley, Sunday.

M. A. McClain, of Metamora, has purchased the stock owned by the Carthage Drug Store, and will take possession in a few days. R. C. Small will be retained as salesman by the new firm.

Mrs. J. E. Campbell pleasantly entertained a company of the younger girls one afternoon last week in honor of Miss Hazel Liggett, of Frankton, who is Miss Pearl Randall's guest. Miss Liggett sang a solo at the M. E. church Sunday morning.

Rev. Scull will go to Liberty this week to attend a ministerial conference.

A large crowd assembled at the race west of the Friends' church to witness a baptizing Sunday afternoon. Miss Louisa Watkins was immersed by Rev. Philander Weaver, of the Market Street Christian church.

The beautiful crimson rambler rose which adorns the porch at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Siler, on South Walnut street, is a mass of bloom and attracts more attention than any vine in town. At "Uncle" John Kizer's northeast of town, a graceful honeysuckle vine is worth more than a passing glance.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Bundy celebrated the tenth anniversary of their marriage with a large family dinner Sunday.

Mr. John McDaniel and Miss Lora Webb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Webb, were married at the bride's home at six o'clock Sunday evening. Only the immediate family and the officiating clergyman, Rev. D. C. Benjamin, and Mrs. Benjamin were present. The bride was attired in white. They went at once to their new home, the cottage recently vacated by Lewis Howell.

Dr. and Mrs. Gause and daughter Helen and Mrs. Eunice S. Phelps attended the commencement at the Indianapolis Conservatory of Music, Thursday night. Miss Stella Gause, who was one of the graduates has been a member of the Conservative faculty, a position which she has been asked to take next year. Miss Gause went from Indianapolis to Crawfordsville to be maid of honor at the marriage of her friend, Miss Mabel Willis, and Mr. Rounds.

EVADES THE CONSTABLE

Threatened Eviction Drove Woman to Kill Children and Herself.

Chicago, June 27.—Threatened with starvation and with her husband hopelessly insane in the asylum at Kankakee, Mrs. Anna Kelsdzick gave up the struggle for existence, killed her three small children and then ended her own life. Illuminating gas was the means of destruction she adopted, and when the bodies were found early Sunday all four had been dead several hours.

The family lived in three small rooms at 965 North Robey avenue, and Sunday a constable was to eject the mother and her babies from the premises for the non-payment of rent. It was after Mrs. Kelsdzick had been served with a summons to appear in court that she decided to end the lives of herself and little ones. The three children, Bruno, Herman and Walter, aged seven, five and two years respectively, were found in bed locked in each other's arms. The mother's lifeless body was found lying on the kitchen floor, while gas was escaping from a jet in the room.

That the woman made every preparation to do away with herself and children was evident. She first wrote and sealed a letter addressed to a relative in Germany. Then she bathed herself and donned clean linen. Each child had also been given a bath, clean nightgowns placed upon them and the little ones sent to the sleep from which they would never awaken.

Several months ago Kelsdzick was out of work at the time he became insane from brooding over his troubles and was sent to the asylum. Since that time the mother, who was in poor health, has had a hard struggle for existence. Last week she became so ill that she was unable to work any more and had spent her last dollar for food for herself and the children Saturday afternoon. With ejection from her home staring her in the face Sunday morning and with no more money in her possession to procure another, Mrs. Kelsdzick took the lives of her babies and her own to end her troubles.

AN INCREASING MYSTERY

Two Continents Disturbed Over Disappearance of Kent Loomis.

Paris, June 27.—Not a word has been received regarding the whereabouts of Kent J. Loomis, brother of Francis B. Loomis, assistant secretary of state, who disappeared shortly before or after the arrival of the North Lloyd steamer Kaiser Wilhelm II., at Plymouth, June 20. Although midnight last night marked a week since the disappearance of Mr. Loomis, the officials still cling to the belief that he will turn up when the effects of his supposed abstraction have worn off. Their belief is due to a careful deduction from the series of circumstances related by his companions on board the steamer. This process of deduction practically excludes the theory of foul play on board the Kaiser Wilhelm II., and also excludes the likelihood that Loomis fell overboard. It leads to the acceptance of a passenger's statement that he saw Loomis get off at Plymouth. Although satisfied that Loomis was not lost from the Kaiser Wilhelm II., the officials foresee the possibility that some harm may have befallen him after he landed at Plymouth. However, they consider this possibility rather remote, nevertheless the complete absence of clues after a week of continued effort to find Mr. Loomis make the case one of increasing mystery.

Would-be Rescuer Drowned.

Columbus, Ohio, June 27.—Pere Hall and Charles McDaniels, young men of Sabina, Ohio, were drowned while bathing in the Olentangy river north of Columbus Sunday afternoon. Hall was not a good swimmer, and when in midstream called for help. McDaniels and two other companions went to his rescue and Hall and McDaniels went down together.

Rabbits Meet at Louisville.

Louisville, Ky., June 27.—One hundred and fifty rabbits, each representing one or more congregations of the Reformed Jewish Church in America, are in Louisville to attend the fifteenth annual conference or rabbis. Many leaders in the Jewish faith are in attendance at the conference.

Williams for Temporary Chairman. New York, June 27.—Congressman John Sharp Williams, minority leader in the house, is slated for the temporary chairmanship of the Democratic national convention and will deliver his party's keynote speech.

WANT TO GET OUT

Four Townships In Laporte County Boldly Threaten Secession.

RIGHTS ARE DEMANDED

The Secessionists Declare That the County Commissioners Are Not Giving Them a Fair Shake.

Claim Is Made That the Board Is Dominated by Alien Influence to Complainants' Detriment.

Laporte, Ind., June 27.—Laporte county is confronted with a secession movement which may deprive it of four of its townships. Citizens of Hanna, Dewey, Cass and Prairie townships have retained attorneys to wage a fight for annexation to Starke county.

The allegation is made that the commissioners of Laporte county are under the domination of land reclamation companies, composed of Illinois capitalists who extensively operate in the Kankakee district, and that they will not be accorded equal rights with the other portions of the county until they are permitted to secede. The movement is likely to figure in a sensational manner at the next meeting of the state legislature.

POLICE SENSATION

Exposure of Alleged Rottenness Is Promised at Evansville.

Evansville, Ind., June 27.—Chief of Police Fred Houke, who made sensational charges of corruption against the city administration was tried and suspended by the board of safety. Four charges—drinking on duty, conduct unbecoming an officer, conduct detrimental to good order and the discipline of the force, and publicly commenting on the official acts of the commissioners—were made against him. The hearing will be Friday.

It is not likely that the chief will appear, as he feels that he will not get justice from the men against whom he has made charges. The same opinion is held by the council, which declares the matter was taken out of its hands by the police board and investigated by them.

The council will probably hold an open court of inquiry to make a thorough investigation into Houke's charges of corruption. If the charges are confirmed impeachment of the highest officers of the city government may be expected. Houke says that men high in city affairs have levied tribute from disreputable resorts for three years.

Thousands Greet Nominee.

Indianapolis June 27.—Greeted by the cheers of thousands of his fellow citizens, Senator Fairbanks Saturday night voiced his appreciation of the splendid ovation given to him on his return from Chicago, where he was nominated on Thursday for the vice presidency. It is estimated that 10,000 people turned out at the Union depot, along the principal streets where his carriage was to pass and at the family home on North Meridian street, to extend a generous welcome.

Two Drowned at Rome City.

Fort Wayne, Ind., June 27.—Edward McCarthy, aged twenty-two years, of Reading, Pa., who has been working at the trade of cigarmaker in this city for two months, and Miss May Seguin of this city, were drowned by the capsizing of a row-boat at Rome City lake, forty miles north of Fort Wayne, Sunday afternoon. The man was fishing and lost his balance and overturned the boat, pulling the girl with him. Both were members of an excursion party from Fort Wayne.

Relief of Other Days.

New Albany, Ind., June 27.—Negotiations are now pending for the sale of a part of one of the two remaining toll lines in the state, both of which enter New Albany. One of the roads between New Albany and Corydon, a distance of twenty miles, is owned by the Corydon, Lanesville and New Albany Turnpike company. The other road is between this city and Paoli, a distance of forty miles, and is owned by the New Albany and Vincennes Plank Road company.

He Used a Razor.

Hammond, Ind., June 27.—John Hatt, a business man of Robertsdale, whose mind was affected by sunstroke which he suffered several years ago, committed suicide by cutting his throat from ear to ear with a razor.

Lightning Struck Church.

South Bend, Ind., June 27.—Lightning struck St. Paul's Lutheran church steeple and shocked two persons in the vicinity. Trees were destroyed and for a time the storm assumed cyclonic proportions.

Wires Cause Destructive Blaze.

Anderson, Ind., June 27.—The home of M. I. Masters, a grocer, suffered a $3,000 loss by fire. The fire caught from an electric light wire and the household goods were destroyed.

Dying From Dog Scratch.

Princeton, Ind., June 27.—Thomas Watkins, a wealthy farmer, is dying from blood poisoning caused by a dog scratching him on the hand a few days ago.

DOWIE IS IMPLACABLE

He Hates the Reporters as Cordially as Ever.

New York, June 27.—On his first public appearance after his trip around the world, John Alexander Dowie Sunday attacked the character of King Edward, declared that he loved President Roosevelt, and denounced reporters. He spoke at Carnegie hall. After much bitter reference to King Edward he said: "Defender of the faith indeed! Two weeks ago he went to see the Duke of Devonshire to see some horses and get points about a coming race. The prophet is a mightier man than the king, and what the prophet said has made his throne totter."

"I love Theodore Roosevelt, but if he does a great wrong I shall not be afraid to tell him of it, and I believe he is too good a man to be afraid to hear of it."

To the reporters he shouted: "But I say to each one of you fellows, beware! You will each have to stand before God for your own sins. 'Touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm,' God declares; and he will protect his prophets. All liars have their portion in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone. You can laugh yourselves into hell, but you cannot laugh yourselves out. A Methodist minister once scoffed at me and was put out for disturbing a service. I told him to beware, and my words rang in his ears. Three days later his body was found in a pool of water. I cannot tell how it got there, but I warned him. And I warn you men—beware! God will stop your mouths. I brand you scoundrels and you dogs as a pack of unmitigated liars. Yet I pray God to bless you."

"I have been asked when I will stop fighting. Not until I have got the devil licked. And until I have got him licked, I will keep on licking the little devils. I would like to save everyone, even the young fellows out of those literary scavengers' offices downtown. And when I get to Heaven I think I should like to go to hell to fight the devil there."

TEACHERS MEET

Thousands of Them Gather at St. Louis This Week.

St. Louis, June 27.—A meeting of the national council this afternoon practically marked the beginning of the 43d annual convention of the National Educational association, which will be held at the World's Fair grounds this week, although the general sessions do not begin until tomorrow. Over a hundred addresses will be delivered and a very extensive program will be carried out.

It is estimated that probably 10,000 educators have already arrived, but twice that number may be in the city. They have come in small parties and a comparatively small number have registered, the others having gone to private boarding houses, the homes of friends, and to hotels direct from the trains. It is anticipated that at least 30,000 educators will be in attendance, but not until the various sessions have convened on Tuesday will it be known approximately how large the attendance is.

Sultan Yields to Powers.

Constantinople, June 27.—The sultan has signed an irade approving the porte's decision to make complete restitution and redress to the persecuted Armenians. The sultan's reluctant surrender is believed to be due to his desire to forestall the international convention June 29 in behalf of Armenia.

Killed by Trolley Car.

Cleveland, O., June 27.—Christopher Fresse, an ex-city councilman and his wife, Louisa, both over sixty years of age, were struck by a Lake Shore electric car Sunday afternoon while crossing the tracks on the Clifton boulevard and killed.

LOCAL BREVITIES

New rails are being laid on the J. M. & I., southwest of the depot today.

Three coaches for the Winona excursion tomorrow came down on the Big Four this morning.

Work was begun this morning on the new cooler to be erected by the Indianapolis Brewing Co., on the lot just east of the C., H. & D. freight depot.

The Supply company is making great progress in their work of laying gas mains on Third street. The piping is now all in up to the crossing of Third and Morgan streets.

Supt. Ong had a force of men at work this morning removing the fire plug which was situated on the north east corner of the crossing of Third and Morgan streets to the northwest corner of the same place. The fire plug, curbing and cement walks were on the spot where the I. & C. tracks make the curve.

Judge Allen, at Indianapolis Saturday, rendered his decision in the injunction case of the city of Greenfield against the Greenfield Gas Co. He decided in favor of the city and granted a perpetual injunction against the company turning the gas off from the mains in that city.

Greensburg Review: Mitchell, or Short Bull, as he is known among his red brethren, has been secured by Manager Loyd, and caught his afternoon in the game against Brazil. Short Bull is a base ball player of merit and will make a creditable showing in any position on a team.

There was a time when the readers of a newspaper read the advertisements only when there was nothing else in the paper to read. But now-a-days it is a potent fact that the average reader is educated to the ad-reading habit. Tasty, well displayed announcements of trading places appeal to the eye, and are sure to be scanned with the bargain hunting avidity. And on the other hand more advertisers are beginning to realize the fact that advertising really pays, but of course it must be systematic and steady.

The home of Dr. H. E. Phares, of Shelbyville, was entered by burglars last Sunday night and a valuable gold watch was taken. Yesterday Dr. Phares received word from the Cincinnati chief of police, stating that it had been found in a pawnshop there. A local officer will go to Cincinnati at once and get the watch and will try to get a description of the one who pawned it. It is thought that the numerous thefts which have been committed in Shelbyville of late have been the work of local talent and that the stolen articles have been taken to Cincinnati and disposed of by a woman.

The Heavenly Recruit church held baptismal exercises at the mill race between Main and Morgan streets yesterday and John Cnpp, a member of that church, was immersed. A large crowd witnessed the ceremonies.

Tomorrow is the day for the Winona Sunday school excursion. The weather here today was not very favorable but rains this time of the year being local, rainy weather here would not signify that it is rainy there.

The men who are lining the power house smoke stack have their work about a third done. Two more carloads of the large fire brick which is being used inside the stack arrived this morning and are being unloaded at the power house.

Riley Stewart was arrested by the police on First street, Saturday night about eight o'clock and lodged in jail on the charge of public intoxication. Farewell Reception at Little Flatrock.

One of the most pleasant affairs in church circles, that has recently transpired, was the farewell reception given in honor of Mrs. A. B. Houze, wife of the retiring minister of Little Flatrock Christian church, at the elegant country home of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Davison, Thursday from 2 to 5 p. m.

The missionary society of the church did the entertaining with Mrs. Davison and Mrs. Carney as hostesses. The invited guests were the ladies of the Rushville, Ben Davis and Orange societies, who were present to the number of one hundred and forty. A more perfect day could not have been selected and Mr. and Mrs. Davison's magnificent residence, under the transforming hand of Miss Ethel Amos, was made a bower of beauty. The dining room was decorated in pink and white, while in the parlors Crimson Rambler and American Beauty roses were seen in great abundance and good taste.

Mrs. A. B. Houze, the guest of honor, Mrs. Elbert Davison and Mrs. Clarence Carney, hostesses, Mrs. Wesley Mauzy, president and Mrs. Mauzy Bebout, vice president of the society received in the west parlor.

The guests began to arrive at 2 p. m. and soon the spacious parlors were filled with beautiful and graceful women, who were all smiles and laughter and ruffles and frills.

A musical program was rendered which was participated in by Misses Hazel Morris, Georgia Wyatt, Florence Frazee Miss Megee, Miss Ethel Amos and Mrs. Elsie Davison. Mrs. Ora Wilson gave a humorous production that was mirth provoking. Refreshments were served by the deft hands of the young ladies of the church.

Just as the guests were preparing to leave, Mrs. Mauzy Bebout stepped forward and in a neat and complimentary speech presented to Mrs. Houze, on behalf of the Little Flatrock society, a beautiful gold C. W. B. M. pin, which was most graciously received.

The guests departed feeling that a splendid afternoon had been enjoyed and wishing Rev. and Mrs. Houze success in their new field of labor at Flora, Indiana.

Must be Mistaken.

The editor of the Greensburg Review in commenting on the ball game last Friday says:

"Contrary to expectations the Rushville public showed every courtesy possible to their visitors and none of the hoodlumism that was expected of them was shown. Notwithstanding the fact that Rushville scored a couple of runs in the second inning, they were out classed by the home team, who will show them up on their appearance here on July 7th."

Of course it was "contrary to expectations." The Greensburg people had expected to receive what they had given. As to the latter statement, in the last two parts of games Rushville has scored 5 runs to 1 for Greensburg. We will "have to be shown" Mr. Editor before we believe your team the best.

Fair Japan, the Gem of the Pike.

The Pikers along the Pike have started out with the intention of making that amusement resort the most pretentious the world ever yet has seen, and from the reports which have been received from visitors to the Fair the most beautiful of all the Pike concessions is "Fair Japan." Here eight hundred natives of the little empire now so conspicuously before the public eye have congregated and have formed a village which from the standpoint of the unique and novel never before has been duplicated upon this continent—or in fact anywhere outside the Celestial Empire.

The chief feature of "Fair Japan" are the beautiful entrance, a replica in every detail of the famous Nikko Gate in Japan, the street in Tokio, the Japanese Theatre in which the Geisha Girls deport themselves for the edification of the public; the tea gardens and the ancient architectural structures which have been brought to the United States for exhibition purposes. All in all "Fair Japan" is a place more than well worth the seeing and all of those residents of this city who visit St. Louis and pause before the sign of the Dragon, will not begrudge the small admission fee demanded for an exhibition at the same time educational, beautiful and unique.
